Re: Recall to Inspect and Repair
Certain 2011 - 2014 TenPoint and Wicked Ridge Crossbows:
Consumer Test Procedure

Dear TenPoint Customer:

Product safety is our top priority.

In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, TenPoint Crossbow Technologies is announcing a voluntary recall to repair certain TenPoint and Wicked Ridge crossbows. TenPoint is requesting that owners of these models conduct a self-inspection to determine if their crossbow requires the recall and repair.

TenPoint has discovered that arrows can release from certain crossbows following a sequence of actions involving: 1. pulling the trigger when the safety is on “safe”, 2. moving the safety slide to “fire”, 3. attempting unsuccessfully to return the safety to “safe”, and 4. pulling the trigger a second time believing the trigger is on “safe”.

How do I know if my crossbow is affected?

The voluntary recall to inspect - and repair if necessary - applies to certain TenPoint and Wicked Ridge crossbows manufactured from 2011 to 2014. A complete list of the crossbow models and serial numbers is displayed in the chart following this letter. The serial number is located on the left side of the crossbow barrel below the trigger box.

If your crossbow is listed below, please follow the attached self-test procedure to determine whether it requires a repair and, if so, how to return it to TenPoint free of charge. If you are not familiar with the safe-use rules contained in your Owner’s Manual, or if you do not feel comfortable conducting the test, call TenPoint at the number below.

For more information, including a self-test video, please visit <http://www.tenpointcrossbows.com> or <http://www.wickedridgecrossbows.com> and click on “Recall to Repair – Self Test”. You may also contact TenPoint by email at safetyrecall@tenpointcrossbows.com or by phone at (800) 548-6837 (from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. ET Monday through Friday).

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Hunter’s Manufacturing Company Inc.
